

How Much Booze Do You Lose?

BottleLox

Your alcohol isn't bad; don't lock it up like Prohibition

This one-size-fits-all device offers you the speediest anti-theft remedy for your liquor losses. BottleLox provides an easy-to-use solution in a one-handed operation that safely secures your bottles in a single motion. It's clear, unobtrusive design does not take away from your products' appearance and gives your store a cohesive look while maximizing shelf space. BottleLox comes off just as easy as it goes on; one swift tap on the magnetic detacher opens up the clasp. When counters are unattended, a lock is placed over the magnet to prevent unwanted theft.

Unchain your bottles and set your spirits free with Bottlelox.
